Imposter Alert

We have been informed that there are imposters attempting to contact law firms in the United States via e-mails or phone calls, requesting for legal services, such as debt collection, under the name of our president. However, our president will not contact our law firms directly. Moreover, we do not use a free e-mail address in our official e-mail transmission, like the abovementioned e-mails which have been sent from free e-mail address such as "gmail.com".

Please do not respond to such e-mails or phone calls, and do not make a transaction.

We do not take any responsibility for damages sustained in relation to any transactions that rely upon such fraudulent e-mails or phone calls.

If you receive a suspicious e-mail and wish to determine whether it is authentic or not, please contact us at
